When installing your drivers, how many of them are you going to install? You have about 20 different devices to install drivers for. I suggest you make a list of those devices and install them one by one. The problem is that they don't have much room to be stored. Luckily, there's an app that can help you manage your installation process. It's called Driver Booster and is one of the best free apps available in the App Store. Driver Booster allows you to customize the installation list. It will allow you to add only the drivers that you need to install on your computer. You can also delete unwanted drivers and you can choose to install your drivers one by one or to choose a single driver with a single click. Installation process is not that difficult. Once the app loads, you have to navigate through the various options. The first one is to choose the list of your installed devices. Next, you have to choose the type of driver you want to install. At this point, you can add, edit or remove drivers. If you have a lot of devices, Driver Booster should not take much time to complete the installation. After the installation is done, you can preview your work. It will tell you which drivers have been installed and which ones have been removed. You can also check your hardware status and learn how your system works. This app is a great tool for every computer user and I highly recommend it. I'm not aware of any other app that offers the same features. Adware from the Russian internet is quite the plague, threatening every computer user with a ton of useless advertisements. After all, how many times have you accidentally clicked on an advertisement and spent hours on the internet searching for the product you want to buy? I'm sure you've done it. Well, stop right there! Download Driver Booster, an app that blocks all ads and will help you control your internet activity. Driver Booster includes five different types of filters. You can block all ads, only ads from the website, ads that pop up when you type in a URL, ads for mobile applications and ads for mobile games. By blocking ads, you'll enjoy a cleaner and more safe internet. If you're looking for a way to cut out all the ad-based internet from your life, this is the app you need. Another important thing about this app is the filters' settings. You can customize them in a way that suits your needs. On the first page, you can choose between three settings. Choose Automatic mode to have Driver Booster filter all ads automatically, choose Manual mode to manually choose what you want
